

Summary of NVR & NA work 2014 – Switzerland

Written by: claudia seefeldt

In Switzerland the dissemination of the New Authority approach was again successful in 2014.

Especially in schools and social institutions more and more professionals are becoming familiar with aspects of NVR, the New Authority and multi-systemic work.

More than 300 people attended the annual conference “stärke statt macht” in November. It was the 15th time that this event took place in Zurich.

This year Haim Omer was joined by Eia Asen, Uri Weinblatt, Stephan Marks, Roland Reichenbach, Natalie Knapp, Bernhard Jacob and Rolf Schönenberger. Experts from different fields could use that opportunity to exchange their knowledge and experiences.

Two basic NVR trainings took place once again in Zurich, Switzerland. Dr. Uri Weinblatt and Idan Amiel (from Israel) teamed up together with Claudia Seefeldt from isi-netz24 and introduced the concepts to more than 60 participants. Read here about the training program.

The dates for the next training are already set in June and July 2015. Also in June for the first time Uri Weinblatt will hold the workshop “Regulating shame in families and in schools” in Zurich.

Furthermore the isi-netz24 extended its program of New Authority and multi-systemic related workshops for the next year, addressing social workers and other professional groups. Read here more.

The isi-netz24 hosted three open network meetings in 2014 giving opportunities to expand and strengthen the net and add new “knots” to the Swiss community.
